JM does not practice Engineering or Architecture. JM roof inspections solely benefit JM in determining (a) whether to issue or continue coverage of a JM Guarantee, subject to its limitations and exclusions; or (b) what repairs, if any, are required under the terms of an active JM Guarantee. JM roofing inspections are not a substitute for professional engineering design/documentation and shall not constitute any warranty or endorsement of the suitability of the roofing system or conformance of the installation to project plans, codes or specifications. Roofing contractors are independent third parties. In conducting its inspections, JM does not supervise/direct the roofing contractor's work.
